Terms of Service

Last updated September 6, 2026

These Terms of Service are a simple agreement for using Career Intelligence. By creating an account and checking the box on the sign-up form, you agree to these terms.

The service

Career Intelligence helps you upload resumes and job descriptions, review extracted skills, chat about your career data, and practice interviews. Features may change as the product grows. The service is provided as-is, without a guarantee of uninterrupted access or perfect AI output.

Your account

You must provide accurate account details and keep your password private. You are responsible for activity on your account. We may suspend access if we believe the service is being misused.

Your content

You keep ownership of resumes, job descriptions, and messages you submit. You grant us permission to store and process that content so the product can index files, generate answers, and show insights. You confirm you have the right to upload the material.

Acceptable use

Do not use the service to break the law, upload malware, attempt to access other people's accounts, or submit content you do not have rights to. AI answers can be wrong; review them before you rely on them for applications or interviews.

Privacy

How we handle personal data is described in our Privacy Policy.

Privacy Policy

Last updated September 6, 2026

This Privacy Policy explains how Career Intelligence handles information you provide when you create an account and use the product. It is a simple product summary, not legal advice.

What we collect

- Account details: name, email, and a hashed password.
- Documents you upload, such as resumes and job descriptions, plus pasted job text.
- Chat and interview messages, document processing status, and usage counts (for example token usage).

How we use it

We use this information to sign you in, index your documents, answer questions about your resume and jobs, prepare interview topics, and show usage. We do not sell your personal information.

Who can see it

Your documents and conversations belong to your account. We may send content to third-party AI providers so the product can extract skills, generate answers, and run interview practice. Do not upload information you are not allowed to share.

How long we keep it

We keep account data, documents, and conversations until you delete them or close your account. You can delete individual documents from My Documents. Signing out does not delete your data.

Cookies and storage

The app stores a session token in your browser (localStorage if you choose Remember me, otherwise sessionStorage). Sidebar preferences may also be saved locally on your device.
